Plaintiff Maria Echeverria ("Plaintiff") on her own behalf and on behalf of all others similarly situated, by and through her undersigned attorneys, Hang & Associates, PLLC, hereby files this complaint against the Defendants Briana's Fashion, Inc., John Kusturic, and Ivan Kusturic (collectively "Defendants"), alleges and shows the Court the following:

INTRODUCTION

1. This is an action brought by Plaintiff on her own behalf and on behalf of similarly situated employees, alleging violations of the Fair Labor Standards Act, 29 U.S.C. § 201 et seq. ("FLSA") and the New York Labor Law, arising from Defendants' various willful and unlawful employment policies, patterns and/or practices.

2. Upon information and belief, Defendants have willfully and intentionally committed widespread violations of the FLSA and NYLL by engaging in a pattern and practice of failing to pay their employees, including Plaintiff, overtime compensation for all hours worked over forty (40) each workweek.

3. Plaintiff alleges pursuant to the FLSA, that they are entitled to recover from the Defendants: (1) unpaid minimum wages, (2) overtime wages, (3) liquidated damages, (4) damages for Defendants' retaliation against Plaintiff, (5) prejudgment and post-judgment interest; and (6) attorneys' fees and costs.

4. 16. Upon information and belief, Defendant Ivan Kusturic owns the stock of Briana's Fashion, Inc. and manages and makes all business decisions including but not limited to the amount in salary the employee will receive and the number of hours employees will work. (See Exhibit 2).

17. At all times relevant herein, Briana's Fashion, Inc., were, and continues to be, an "enterprise engaged in commerce" within the meaning of FLSA.

18. At all relevant times, the work performed by Plaintiff was directly essential to the business operated by Briana's Fashion, Inc.

19. At all relevant times, Defendants knowingly and willfully failed to pay Plaintiff his lawfully earned minimum wages, overtime compensation and spread-of-hour premiums, and failed to provide him a wage notice at the time of hiring in violation of the NYLL.

20. Plaintiff has fulfilled all conditions precedent to the institution of this action and/or conditions have been waived.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

21. Defendants committed the following alleged acts knowingly, intentionally and willfully.

22. Defendants knew that the nonpayment of minimum wages, overtime pay, spread of hours pay, and failure to provide the required wage notice at the time of hiring would financially injure Plaintiff and similarly situated employees and violate state and federal laws.

Plaintiff Maria Echeverria

23. From March, 2013 to September 28, 2015, Plaintiff Maria Echeverria was hired by Defendants to work as a seamstress and cloths cleaners for Defendants' businesses.

24. Plaintiff worked six (6) days per week, Monday through Friday from 8:00 a.m. until 6:00 p.m. and Saturday from 8:00 a.m. until 12:00 p.m. During her employment Plaintiff worked approximately sixty-four (64) hours per week.

25. Plaintiff was not paid by the hours worked but instead was paid by dozen of units produced and/or cleaned. For every dozen of units created, depending on the unit, Plaintiff was paid $2.50 - $4.00. For every dozen of units cleaned, Plaintiff was paid $0.70.

26. Defendants owe Plaintiff for worked performed ending on August 12, 2015 and September 28, 2015. For August 12, 2015 Defendants owe Plaintiff $356.95, $25.20 for units cleaned and $331.75 for units created. For September 28, 2015 Defendants owe Plaintiff $210.75 for units created.

27. Plaintiff worked sixty-six (66) hours a week and was paid an average of $300 a workweek, essentially paying Plaintiff $4.55 an hour. The applicable minimum wage for the relevant period was $9.00 per hour:

28. Defendants required employees to record units produced and/or cleaned and not hours worked. Defendants would then calculate the amount owed to each employee based on their payment schedule for each unit created/cleaned.

29. Defendants created fraudulent paystubs and time records which did not accurately display the amount of hours Plaintiff worked. Defendants would manipulate the hours and hourly wage in order to equal the pay earned by Plaintiff for each unit created/cleaned.

30. Defendants did not compensate Plaintiff overtime compensation according to state and federal laws.

31. Defendants did not provide Plaintiff with a wage notices at the time of her hiring.

32. Defendants committed the following alleged acts knowingly, intentionally and willfully.

33. Defendants knew that the nonpayment of overtime would economically injure Plaintiff and the Collective Members by their violation of federal and state laws.

34. While employed by Defendants, Plaintiff was not exempt under federal and state laws requiring employers to pay employees overtime.

35. Plaintiff and the FLSA Collective Action Members' workdays frequently lasted longer than 10 hours.

36. Defendants did not pay Plaintiff and other Collective Action members' New York's "spread of hours" premium for every day in which they worked over 10 hours.

37. Defendants failed to keep full and accurate records of Plaintiff's hours and wages.

38. Defendants did not provide Plaintiff and other Collective Action Members with written notices about the terms and conditions of their employment upon hire in relation to their rate of pay, regular pay cycle and rate of overtime pay. These notices were similarly not provided upon Plaintiff and other Collective Members' pay increase(s).

COLLECTIVE ACTION ALLEGATIONS

39. Defendants knowingly and willfully operated their business with a policy of not paying Plaintiff and other similarly situated employees either the FLSA overtime rate (of time and one-half), or the New York State overtime rate (of time and one-half), in violation of the FLSA and New York Labor Law and the supporting federal and New York State Department of Labor Regulations.

40. Plaintiff brings this action individually and on behalf of all other and former non-exempt employees who have been or were employed by the Defendants at each of their four finishing locations for up to the last three (3) years, through entry of judgment in this case (the "Collective Action Period") and whom failed to receive minimum wages, spread-of-hours pay, and/or overtime compensation for all hours worked in excess of forty (40) hours per week (the "Collective Action Members"), and have been subject to the same common decision, policy, and plan to not provide required wage notices at the time of hiring, in contravention to federal and state labor laws.

41. Defendants knowingly and willfully operated their business with a policy of not paying the New York State “spread of hours” premium to Plaintiff and other similarly situated employees.

42. Upon information and belief, the Collection Action Members are so numerous the joinder of all members is impracticable. The identity and precise number of such persons are unknown, and the facts upon which the calculations of that number may be ascertained are presently within the sole control of the Defendants. Upon information and belief, there are more than two (2) Collective Action Members, who have worked for or have continued to work for the Defendants during the Collective Action Period, most of whom would not likely file individual suits because they fear retaliation, lack adequate financial resources, access to attorneys, or knowledge of their claims. Therefore, Plaintiff submits that this case should be certified as a collection action under the FLSA, 29 U.S.C. §216(b).

43. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the Collective Action Members, and have retained counsel that is experienced and competent in the field of employment law and class action litigation. Plaintiff has no interests that are contrary to or in conflict with those members of this collective action.

44. This action should be certified as collective action because the prosecution of separate action by individual members of the collective action would risk creating either inconsistent or varying adjudication with respect to individual members of this collective that would as a practical matter be dispositive of the interest of the other members not party to the adjudication, or subsequently impair or impede their ability to protect their interests.

45. A collective action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of this controversy, since joinder of all members is impracticable. Furthermore, inasmuch as the damages suffered by individual Collective Action Members may be relatively small, the expense and burden of individual litigation makes it virtually impossible for the members of the collective action to individually seek redress for the wrongs done to them. There will be no difficulty in the management of this action as collective action.

46. Questions of law and fact common to members of the collective action predominate over questions that may affect only individual members because Defendants have acted on grounds generally applicable to all members. Among the questions of fact common to Plaintiff and other Collective Action Members are:

- a. Whether the Defendants employed Collective Action members within the meaning of the FLSA;
- b. Whether the Defendants failed to pay the Collective Action Members overtime wages for all hours worked above forty (40) each workweek in violation of the FLSA and the regulation promulgated thereunder;
- d. Whether the Defendants failed to provide the Collective Action Members with a wage notice at the time of hiring as required by the NYLL;
- e. Whether the Defendants' violations of the FLSA are willful as that term is used within the context of the FLSA; and,
- f. Whether the Defendants are liable for all damages claimed hereunder, including but not limited to compensatory, punitive, and statutory damages, interest, costs and disbursements and attorneys' fees.

47. Plaintiff knows of no difficulty that will be encountered in the management of this litigation that would preclude its maintenance as a collective action.

48. Plaintiff and others similarly situated have been substantially damaged by Defendants' unlawful conduct.
